Your Guide to "The Happiest Place on Earth"

Visit the New Fantasyland

Come Share the Magic

The Fantasy. The Adventure. The Memories. It's all waiting for you at Disneyland. The Happiest Place On Earth. Over 200 million people from every corner of the globe have made Disneyland one of their most cherished memories. And those memories will last a lifetime.

Main Street, U.S.A., where turn-of-the-century America is being introduced to the horseless carriage and the gas lamp. Where the Penny Arcade really costs a penny and where the Ice Cream Sundaes are the order of the day. Then follow the Disneyland Band to Central Plaza where your journey begins to six different themed lands.

An exotic Jungle Cruise awaits unwary explorers in Adventureland. Pirates of the Caribbean take over the town in New Orleans Square and you'll be entertained by the most creative ghosts you've ever imagined in the Haunted Mansion. Then there's Bear Country, home of those "un-bear-able bear-i-tones" of the Country Bear Jamboree.

Frontierland brings back all the good things of America's old west as the Mark Twain Steamship paddles through the Rivers of America and the wild west show's in town every day at the Golden Horseshoe. But hold on, over at Big Thunder Mountain the Run-away Mine Trains are wilder than the West ever was!

You'll feel like a storybook character when you walk through the gates to Fantasyland. And there's never been a happier crew than those who set sail on everyone's favorite attraction, "It's A Small World." Just for thrills, you can ride a sleek bobsled through the icy caverns of Matterhorn Mountain toward a frightening encounter with the Abominable Snowman.

In Tomorrowland, Space Mountain attracts aspiring astronauts for an incredible flight through the darkness of outer space. Or, for the less adventurous, there's a Mission to Mars, a musical trip on "America Sings" and "circle-vision" tour through the U.S.A. in "America the Beautiful."

Now is the perfect time to join us and fill your scrapbook with great memories. If you've visited before, all the fun you remember is waiting for you to share today, plus countless new shows and attractions for you to catch up on. And Disneyland is closer to you now than ever before. All the magic, fantasy and fun. Just a dream away.
